

2-13-1989

The Record - Vol. 16, Issue 20

IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/the_record

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law, "The Record - Vol. 16, Issue 20" (1989). The Record. 124.
http://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/the_record/124

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Publications at Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Record by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. For more information, please contact dginsberg@kentlaw.iit.edu.

Vol. XVI, No. 20
February 13, 1989

FROM DEAN COLLENS

I am pleased to announce four new faculty appointments.

Richard Booth will be joining us as Visiting Professor of Law for the 1989-90 academic year. Professor Booth is currently a member of the faculty of the Case Western Reserve University School of Law in Cleveland. Professor Booth is a nationally recognized scholar in the field of corporate law. His book on corporate finance will be published this year by Callahan & Company, and he is the author of a number of major articles, including "The Promise of State Takeover Statutes" in the 1988 Michigan Law Review and "The Problem with Federal Tender Offer Law" in the 1989 California Law Review. Professor Booth is a 1976 graduate of Yale Law School, and received his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan. He is currently the editor of The Red Herring, the newsletter of the AALS Section on Business Associations. Professor Booth will be teaching Business Associations and Corporations during the coming year.

Frederick Abbott will be joining us as Assistant Professor of Law. Mr. Abbott is currently a partner in the San Francisco law firm of Pillsbury, Madison and Sutro, where he has specialized in international business transactions. He is a 1977 graduate of Yale Law School, and received his bachelor's degree in international trade and development from the University of California, Berkeley. He is also a candidate for the Master of Laws degree from the University of California School of Law, and is currently completing his thesis: "Analysis of the International Legal Framework for the Protection and Development of Intellectual Property." Professor Abbott will be teaching Contracts and International Law.

Steven Heyman will be joining us as Assistant Professor of Law. Professor Heyman is currently Visiting Associate Professor at the University of Colorado School of Law. He is a 1984 graduate of Harvard Law School, where he served as Articles Editor of the Harvard Law Review and Chairman of the Supreme Court issue. He received his bachelor's degree from Harvard College, and is the author of a number of articles. After graduation, he was clerk to the Honorable Harry T. Edwards, U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, and was then an associate at the Washington, D.C. law firm of Shea & Gardner. Professor Heyman will be teaching Torts during the 1989-90 academic year.

Dale Nance will become Associate Professor of Law. Professor Nance is a 1977 graduate of Stanford Law School. He received his bachelor's degree from Rice University and his master's degree from the University of California, Berkeley. He is the author of several major articles, including "The Best Evidence Principle," published in the 1988 Iowa Law Review. He has taught at Northern Illinois University and the University of San Diego. Professor Nance will be teaching Evidence and Property.

FACULTY NEWS

Professor Richard Gonzalez will serve as moderator of the CBA's Labor and Employment Law Committee's seminar on Litigating Employment Discrimination and Wrongful Discharge Cases, to be held on February 28, 1989. Professor Gonzalez will also lecture at Loyola University School of Law this month on alcoholism, drug addiction and mental illness in the workplace.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Student Bar Association

The Barrister's Bash (student, faculty and staff semi-formal ball) is set for April 1, 1989, (yes, April Fools Day) at the Chicago Hilton and Towers from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m.

The theme for this year's Bash is none other than "Fools for Law." All of you artists, sharpen your pencils! We need sketches for a logo using this theme. The person with the best sketch, which will be used for the Bash tickets and souvenirs, will get a free ticket to the Ball. The deadline for all entries is February 23. Please drop your sketches off in the SBA office, Room 202, or in the SBA mailbox in the College Office.

American Bar Association/LSD

The Spring Conference for the American Bar Association/Law Student Division is set for March 3 and 4, 1989, at Indiana University School of Law at Indianapolis. The Spring Conference is the time when all officers for the Seventh Circuit and liaisons to the Senior Bar Committees are elected and appointed. These positions are open to all law students of ABA-accredited law schools, especially those that are members of the ABA/LSD. This is a great opportunity to be involved in what goes on in the legal community on a local and national level. The SBA would like more Chicago-Kent students to get involved in the ABA/LSD. Anyone who is interested in learning more about the Spring Conference or the ABA/LSD, or in running for or being appointed to one of these positions, please contact Timijanel Boyd or Jo Marie Fredericks at the SBA office, Room 202.

Board of Governors Meeting

The next SBA Board of Governors meeting is set for Thursday, February 23, from 5:15 to 5:45 p.m. Room to be announced. Any items for the agenda, please let Julie Koerner know or leave a note on the SBA door.

Happy Hour

Come one, come all to our first Happy Hour of the spring semester. It will be on Thursday, February 23, from 6:00-10:00 p.m. at the Celtic Club on Wells Street. Further announcements forthcoming.

Finance Committee

There will be a meeting next Tuesday, February 14, at 5:15 p.m. Room number will be posted on the door.

American Bar Association/Law Student Division

The ABA is offering the following writing competitions:

1. 1989 Howard C. Schwab Memorial Essay Contest

Subject Matter: Any aspect of family law

Eligibility: Open to all second and third year students

Deadline: April 8, 1989

Prizes: $300-$700 cash prizes. Winning entry may be selected for publication in the Family Law Quarterly.

(for further information, see WRITING COMPETITIONS)

2. ABA Natural Resources Section Student Writing Competition

Subject Matter: Natural resources, energy or environmental law as it applies to current natural resources issues

Eligibility: Open to all law students

Deadline: April 1, 1989

Prizes: $500-$1,000 cash prizes

3. 1989 Bruno Bitker Essay Competition

Subject Matter: "What Role Should United States Policy Play in the Realization of International Human Rights, Today and Beyond?"

Eligibility: ABA members or all law students

Deadline: May 1, 1989

Prizes: $500-$1,000 cash prizes

4. Richard I. Baxter Student Essay Competition in International Law

Subject Matter: Private or public international or comparative law

Eligibility: All law student members of the ABA section of international law and practice

Deadline: April 1, 1989

Prizes: First prize winner will be sent to the Hague Academy of International Law.

If you are interested in any of the competitions, see Pat Rogers. Information is also located on the ABA bulletin board.

Black American Law Student Association

On Tuesday, February 14, the Black Law Student Association and the Chicago-Kent chapter of the National Lawyers Guild will present the film, "The Murder of Fred Hampton" in Room 101. Opening remarks will be given by Clinical Associate Professor Marc Kadish at 11:45 a.m. The feature length will run approximately 100 minutes.

BALSA will sponsor a panel discussion on "The Criminal Justice System: A Policy of Containment for Black Americans?" Confirmed panelists include The Honorable Shelvin Singer, Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County and Standish Willis a 1983 graduate of Chicago-Kent. The forum will be held on Thursday, February 16, in Room 105 at 5:00 p.m.

BALSA will meet on Saturday, February 18, at 12:00 noon in Room 105. Highlights of the meeting will include a discussion of future programs.

Christian Legal Society

There will be an important Christian Legal Society meeting on Tuesday, February 14, at 4:00 p.m. in Room 303. Please attend if at all possible. If you cannot attend, please call Maiya at 864-4561 or leave a note on locker number 43C in the basement.

Decalogue Society

On Tuesday, February 21, the Decalogue Society is sponsoring a lecture on "Abortion: A Cognitive Analysis of American Constitutional Law and Jewish Law (Halacha)." The guest speaker will be Professor Sheldon Nahmod. Please join us on February 21 at 12:00 noon in Room 105. A deli lunch will be served.

Moot Court

To All Members:

There will be a mandatory meeting regarding the writing workshop on Saturday, February 18. Time and place to be announced.

Phi Alpha Delta

On Tuesday, February 21, at 11:45 a.m. there will be a meeting of the membership and anyone interested in joining. The room number and agenda will be posted on our bulletin board across from the cafeteria.

CAREER SERVICES NEWS

Work Study Students Needed

If you are a student with work study authorization, the Career Services Office NEEDS YOU!! Interested students should stop by Room 221 ASAP to see Barbara Clemmer.

Student Needed to Work In Career Services Offices on Wednesday Evenings

A student is needed to keep the Career Services Office open on Wednesday evenings from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. for the rest of the Spring Term. Any student interested in working 3 hours each week should see Barbara Clemmer in Room 221.

Students Needed To Assist With Midwest Public Interest Career Conference

Chicago-Kent is hosting this year's Midwest Public Interest Career Conference on Saturday, March 4. Student helpers are needed to help host this event. Those students who are willing to volunteer for this are asked to give their name to Barbara Clemmer or Johnna McInnis in Room 221.

Professor Arthur Kinoy Of Rutgers To Speak On The History Of Law Student Activism

Professor Kinoy, founding member of the Center for Constitutional Rights and author of Rights on Trial, will be the keynote speaker for the Midwest Public Interest Conference. He will speak on "The History of Law Student Activism" on Friday, March 3, at 4:00 p.m. in Room 102/103. ALL students are encouraged to attend and to bring others who might be interested in hearing Professor Kinoy speak.

Upcoming Career Development Programs

1) ATTENTION FIRST YEAR STUDENTS: An additional WORKSHOP ON SUMMER JOB SEARCH STRATEGIES has been scheduled for Monday, February 13, at 11:45 a.m. in Room 204. First year students who missed the recent workshops on this subject will be expected to attend this session before asking for individual counseling on finding a summer clerking job.

2) Job Search Workshops for Attorney Positions have been scheduled for Tuesday February 14, at 11:45 a.m. (Room 324) and 5:00 p.m. (Room 304), and Friday, February 24, at 11:45 a.m. (Room 324). Graduating seniors who have not yet secured a position for after graduation should definitely plan on attending one of these workshops.

3) Law Firm Practice Panel - On Friday, February 17, at 11:45 a.m. in Room 642, the Career Services Office will host a panel discussion on law firm practice. All students are invited to come hear an alum from Lord Bissell & Brook and an alum from Rivkin Radler Dunne & Bayh discuss such topics as why they chose law firm practice over government or corporate practice, the pros and cons of large and small firm settings, the training they received in a law firm environment, etc. Don't miss this opportunity to receive an insider view on law firm practice. (Watch The Record for announcements about future panels on corporate and government practice too!)

4) Mock Interview Training Sessions - For those students seeking direct assistance in improving their interviewing skills, mock interview training sessions with a counselor will be available. The interviews will be videotaped, replayed and critiqued in a private setting. There will be a fixed number of time slots available on March 13 and 15. Appointments will be made on a first come, first served basis. Students wishing an appointment should sign up immediately in Room 219.

5) Interview Training Tapes - On Thursday, March 23, in Room 222, two outstanding tapes on interviewing will be run continuously throughout the day from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Stop by at any time during these hours to pick up tips and techniques.

NALP National Apartment Exchange

The National Association for Law Placement National Apartment Exchange is a two-edition publication listing both apartments available and students seeking summer sublets throughout the United States. Edition I will be available in the Career Services Office on March 10 and Edition II will be available April 10. Students wishing to either list an apartment for summer sublet or who wish to sublet an apartment must fill out the appropriate form and submit it to the Career Services Office by February 15 for inclusion in Edition I and by March 15 for inclusion in Edition II (forms are available in the Career Services Office).

1989 Spring On-Campus Interview Program

Students should consult the bulletin boards outside the Career Services Office daily to learn which recruiters have signed up for spring interviewing. Recruiters will be added to this list on an on-going basis as they register. This year's spring on-campus interview program will run from March 13 through April 14 and will once again be a consortium effort on the part of Chicago-Kent, John Marshall, Loyola and DePaul. A handout with detailed information and registration procedures is available now in the Career Services Office. This program is open to all students; third year students seeking associate positions and first and second year students seeking summer law clerk positions should be sure to take advantage of this interview program.

Representative from McGeorge School of Law to Speak about Summer and Graduate International Studies Programs

Mr. Eric Pope, a representative from the European Headquarters of the McGeorge School of Law's International Studies Program, will be on-campus on Monday, February 27. He will speak individually to students interested in the graduate program. Those interested should sign up for an interview in Room 219. He will address students interested in the summer programs from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. in Room 326.

Alumni - Student Advisory Program

First or second year students who wish to be paired with an alumni advisor to answer questions and advise them regarding the legal sector, please see Barbara Clemmer in Room 221 to schedule an appointment with either Dean Saunders or Jeanne Kraft. Students interested in pursuing employment opportunities in other major metropolitan areas of the country should take advantage of the National Alumni Advisory Program. Alumni from 19 cities have volunteered to counsel students and alumni on the employment market in their respective cities and the best ways of working that market. A handout listing these alumni is available in the Career Services Office.

Public Interest Law Initiative (PILI): Summer Internship and Graduate Fellowship Programs

- The Public Interest Law Initiative (PILI) is now recruiting law students and recent law school graduates nationwide to work during the summer in public interest law agencies in Chicago. The summer internship program is open to both first and second year students and the fellowship program is open to graduating third year students. Please note that the application deadline has been extended from February 1 to March 1, 1989. See Handout #22 in the Career Services Office for complete information.

Legal Assistance Foundation of Chicago/Illinois Migrant Legal Assistance

Project: Summer Internships - The Legal Assistance Foundation of Chicago is currently accepting applications for summer internships with their special legal services project serving the legal needs of migrant farmworkers throughout Illinois. Pick up Handout #37 for more information and application procedures.

Prairie State Legal Services, Inc.: Summer Law Clerk Positions

Prairie State, a public interest law firm serving the needs of the low income and elderly in Northern and Central Illinois will be hiring three to four summer law clerks. Interested first and second year students should pick-up Handout #40 for full application procedures. Students are encouraged to apply now.

Office of the State Appellate Defender, Third Judicial District: Summer Intern Program

- The Office of the State Appellate Defender located in Ottawa, IL anticipates having three positions available in its Summer Intern Program. Second year students are preferred but first year students are also eligible. Students interested in criminal defense work for indigents should pick up Handout #41. Interviews will be conducted in January and February.

The National Lawyers Guild Legal Internships: Summer Projects The National Lawyers Guild 1989 Summer Projects program will send 23 interns to projects throughout the country. Interns will have the opportunity to work on issues involving Asian-American housing and job rights, Central American and Haitian refugees, deaf people's rights, democracy in the Teamsters Union, farmworker rights, gay rights, government and corporate whistle-blowers, etc. A brochure describing all of the '89 Summer Projects and containing complete application instructions and form can be picked up in the Career Services Office (Handout #42).

The National Law Center, George Washington University: Graduate and Teaching Fellowships in Law

- Applications for University Fellowships in Law (Teaching Fellowships) to commence in the Fall Term, 1989 are now being accepted. Fellows serve for a period of two years and teach Legal Writing and Research to first year students while working on their own advanced LL.M. law degree. Pick-up Handout #44 for more information. Application deadline is April 15, 1989 but earlier submissions are encouraged.

Legal Aid Society of New York: Summer Intern Program for 1L and 2L Students

- Traditionally only open to second year law students, the Legal Aid Society of New York's Summer Intern Program has been expanded this year to include a few first year students. The summer internship program is an organized educational program to introduce and expose the student intern to criminal defense work. Interested first and second year students should pick up Handout #43 for complete application procedures.

New Jersey Governor's Fellows Program

The state of New Jersey is now accepting applications for its Governor's Fellows Program. Through this program, outstanding graduates with advanced degrees focus on the management of public policy and programs. Fellows are offered positions working with specific cabinet members in a capacity that corresponds to their substantive policy interest. For more information and application directions, pick-up Handout #45.

New York University School of Law: John J. Galgay Fellowship in Bankruptcy and Reorganization Law

- NYU is now accepting applications for its Galgay Program in Bankruptcy and Reorganization Law which offers an opportunity to the post-J.D. student to engage in research and study in the area of insolvency law.

As a Galgay Fellow, the corporate LL.M student will work throughout the academic year as part-time law clerk to a bankruptcy judge in the Southern District of New York and engage in directed research under the supervision of NYU professors. Third year students wishing to be considered for this fellowship should pick up Handout #46 for complete details. Application deadline is April 15, 1989.

1990-91 Clerkships with the Supreme Court of Oregon and Oregon Court of Appeals - Applications are now being accepted for clerkship positions with the Oregon Supreme Court and Oregon Court of Appeals. Applications will be accepted through May 12, 1989 and interviews will be conducted between June 19 and June 30. Interested students should pick up Handout #47.

Mexican American Lawyers Scholarship Fund: Summer Fellowship Program - The MALSF summer fellowship program provides an opportunity for law students of Mexican ancestry to obtain summer employment with a public interest law firm or other community based legal group. Eligible students should pick up program information and application forms from Jeanne Kraft in Room 219. Application deadline is March 1, 1989.

RESEARCH ASSISTANTS NEEDED

Professor David Gerber is looking for a research assistant to begin during the summer and continue next year. Some knowledge of French or German would be helpful. First year students are encouraged to apply. Please see Professor Gerber in Room 632 or leave a resume with his secretary, Carol Johnson.

Professor Gary Laser is seeking a research assistant for the spring semester to work in the area of Civil Procedure and/or Clinical Education. A commitment of no less than 10 hours per week is required. Pay or independent research credit is available. Students who are interested may contact Professor Laser in his office, Room 601, or call 567-5050.

Professor David Lee is looking for a research assistant in the areas of procedure, legal reasoning, legal ethics, family law, and employment discrimination law. Work can be either for pay or for course credit. Other conditions of employment are flexible. Please contact Professor Lee at the Law Offices, Room 601.

UNCLASSIFIABLE, BUT VITAL

Judicial Externships: Summer and Fall, 1989 -- Prospective Second and Third Year Students With Minimum 2.5 G.P.A.

On Tuesday, February 14, at 11:45 a.m. in Room 325 there will be a meeting for all students who are interested in externing for a federal appellate or district judge or magistrate either for the summer or fall semester. Professor Gross will describe the kinds of experiences a judicial extern will have in the course of a semester, as well as how to apply. Professor Gross will also answer questions about the program.

The applications for summer judicial externships will be available on the second floor and in Room 601, Law Offices, as of Wednesday, February 15. Completed applications to various judges and magistrates must be submitted to Ms. Bea Battle, Law Offices Receptionist, Room 601, by Monday, February 27, at 12:00 noon.

The applications for fall judicial externships will be available on the second floor and in Room 601, Law Offices, as of Monday, February 27. Completed fall applications are to be submitted to Ms. Battle in Room 601 by Thursday March 16, at 4:00 p.m.

If you are interested in a judicial externship, but are unable to attend the meeting, please see Professor Gross in Room 612.

Announcement of Adoption of Increased Passing Score on the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination

Notice is hereby given that Illinois has set scaled score 80 as the passing score on the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination effective as to all applicants for admission to the bar of Illinois sitting for that examination on and after August 18 1989.

Applicants are further reminded that the Board of Law Examiners expects that applicants shall sit for said examination in their final year of law school.

Judicial Clerkship Committee Applicants

Terrence Creamer, Andre Flebig, Diane MacDonald, Ina Silvergleid, and Jessica Tovrov should do the following:

1. Pick a writing sample that is as recent as possible, and as similar as possible to the work you would do for a judge as a clerk, and not co-authored.
2. Give Professor Bruce Levin and David Lee one copy each of this writing sample by 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 14.
3. Sign up by 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 14, on the sign-up sheet on Professor Lee's door (Room 606 in the Law Offices) for an interview.

Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination

Applications are now available for the March MPRE (Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination) in Room 306. The application deadline is February 17. A passing score on the MPRE is required as partial fulfillment for admission to the bar.

Resume Production Service

Student Computing Services of the Center for Law and Computers is happy to announce the launching of a new service. The purpose of this service is to provide students with typeset quality resumes at low cost and easy convenience, using personal computer desktop publishing technology. Here's how it works.

We will layout your resume in PC-PageMaker and print 20 copies on bond paper on our laser printer for $20.00. PC-PageMaker is the same software we use to produce our newsletter, The Law Student's PC.

- * 20 copies of laser-printed typeset quality resumes on bond paper
- * Up to 30 minutes of layout and design consultation from our resident desktop publishing expert
- * A camera ready original resume printed on standard white paper that you can take to a printer for large quantity printing
- * A copy of your resume in PC-PageMaker format for future updates
- * Future printings of your copies at our laser printer prices (currently 16 cents per page).

Daley for Mayor Committee

The Daley for Mayor Committee is looking for law students interested in being active participants in the upcoming election. The committee is particularly interested in volunteers who are willing to act as pollwatchers during the upcoming primary on February 28. For those interested, please contact Barb Panozzo at the Daley for Mayor campaign, 108 N. State St., 2nd floor, 269-1982.

The Second Annual Bob Cover Memorial Public Interest Conference will be held March 10-12 in Petersborough, New Hampshire.

Law students and young lawyers who are committed to careers in public service are urged to participate.

Purpose of the Conference

- It would be an opportunity to break the isolation. Students from around the country with common concerns would get to know one another and would realize our national scope of problems and professional opportunity.
- Students would interact with lawyers, legal academics, and other professionals who might provide both practical guidance and role models for the variety of possible public service careers.
- The conference would be a forum for thinking about reform or change or legal education.
- The conference would provide students with a jump-off or starting place for the formulation of programmatic politics or legal change.

Interested students should contact Dean Deutsch in Room 305.

Alumni Association Luncheon Lecture

On Wednesday, February 22, the Alumni Association Luncheon Lecture, "The Illinois Mortgage Foreclosure Act" will be presented by Martin Hauselman, a 1960 graduate of Chicago-Kent and former professor at the law school. The lecture will explore how the act has affected the practice of law in Illinois where real estate is involved. Topics will include the changes introduced by the act emphasizing its impact on the reinstatement and redemption of delinquent mortgages and sheriff's sales. Students who would like to attend must sign up in advance in the Alumni Relations Office, Suite 319. The lecture is $7.00 and includes a box lunch.

WRITING COMPETITIONS

The American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Law and the Electoral Process is pleased to announce its 1989 Law Student Essay Contest.

- Topic: Whether or not election laws impact voter turnout
- Eligibility: Students at ABA-accredited law schools. Papers prepared for law school credit and those written specifically for the competition are eligible, provided that the work is original and the citation and editing have been done solely by the author.
- Prizes: 1st Prize $750
2nd Prize $250
- Deadline: Postmarked no later than April 15, 1989 and sent to the address below

Martha Rinker
ABA Standing Committee on
Law and the Electoral Process
1800 M Street, N.W.
200-S
Washington, D.C. 20036

Health Matrix Quarterly Journal of Health Services Management announces the Sidney Lewine Essay Contest.

Health Matrix is an interdisciplinary effort of Case Western Reserve University School of: Law, Management, Social Sciences, Dentistry, Medicine and Nursing.

- Essays should touch on at least two of these fields.
- $100 is offered to the outstanding essay on abortion
- Deadline: March 1, 1989
- Entries should be sent to:

Executive Editor
Health Matrix
Case Western Reserve University
School of Law
11075 East Boulevard
Cleveland, Ohio 44106

The Howard C. Schwab Memorial Award Essay Contest is conducted annually by the Family Law Section of the American Bar Association.

Purpose of Contest:

To create greater interest in the field of Family Law among all law students of the nation, and particularly the Law Student Division of the American Bar Association.

Subject Matter:

The subject may be any aspect of Family Law that the contestant chooses.

Eligibility:

All second and third year students enrolled in ABA-approved law schools, and first year students enrolled in said schools where the subject of family law is part of the first year curriculum, are eligible to compete, except employees of the American Bar Association.

Authorship:

Each entry shall be the original work of a single individual.

Awards:

1st prize - $700.00
2nd prize - $500 00
3rd prize - $300.00

Deadline:

Entries for the 1989 awards must be postmarked on or before April 8, 1989, and should be submitted to:

Howard C. Schwab Memorial Essay Contest
Section of Family Law, American Bar Association
750 North Lake Shore Drive
Chicago, Illinois 60611

The Food and Drug Law Institute announces The H. Thomas Austern Memorial Writing Competition

Eligibility:

Any J.D. or LL.B. candidate currently enrolled at any of the nation's law schools.

Award:

1st place - $1,500
2nd place - $1,000
3rd place - $500

Deadline:

Papers must be received by the Food and Drug Law Institute no later than June 16, 1989.

Papers should be sent to:

The Food and Drug Law Institute
1000 Vermont Avenue, N.W.
Suite 1200
Washington, D.C. 20005
Attn. Marilyn Moskowitz

The American Intellectual Property Law Association announces the Robert C. Watson award for 1989.

Prize: $500

Eligibility: The article must have been written solely by a student or students either in full time attendance at a law school (day or evening) or prepared in connection with a law school course.

Topic: Any subject relating to the Protection of Intellectual Property written or published between August 1, 1988 and July 31, 1989.

Deadline: The article must be submitted on or before July 31, 1989.

Articles should be sent to:

American Intellectual Property Law Association
Suite 203, 2001 Jefferson Davis Highway
Arlington, Virginia 22202

The Stephen P. Ladas Memorial Award announces its annual award program. A cash prize of $1,000 along with a set of the three-volume work Patents Trademarks and Related Rights - National - International Protection by Dr. Ladas will be awarded.

The competition is open to students and others interested in the trademark field.

Eligible papers include both original manuscripts submitted to USTA during the calendar year January through December and articles first published in the United States, including The Trademark Paper.

The subject of the paper is to be trademark law or a matter that directly relates to or affects trademarks.

Papers should be submitted to:

Judging Committee
Ladas Memorial Award
The United States Trademark Association
6 East 45 Street
New York, New York 10017

For further information on any of the above competitions, contact Pat Rogers in Room 305.